

ATTENTION YOUNG ARTISTS!!

Holiday Art Contest

Geckos.

Geckos first came to Hawaii aboard the Polynesian voyaging canoes. They were tan or brown varieties.

In recent years bright colored geckos have been brought to Hawaii like this one originally from Madagascar.

Draw the Mo'o

The Hawaiian word for lizard is mo'o.

Step 1: FORMING- Form up the gecko by softly drawing circles and ovals and lines. Remember to press softly as these lines will just be a guide to follow before adding your final details.

Step 2: OUTLINING- Using the circles and lines as a guide, make adjustments and do your final outlines for your gecko.

Step 3: SHADING and COLORING - Using crayons or colored pencils, color your mo'o whatever color you want!

Email your art to:

info@kauaifamilymagazine.com
by January 15th. One of you will win the book Honu and Hina
by Patrick Ching and Friends.

It's easy to submit your art for our contest. eMail us, and include your name, age, grade, school and phone number.

kauai family magazine